

ers against the county, for which service he shall not be entitled to make any charge, the same being hereby made a part of his official duty.

P L L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 87.

99. The county commissioners, in cases of visitation from cholera or like epidemics in said county, may provide for the payment of all expenses that may be incurred in procuring temporary hospitals and attendance upon the poor of said county who shall become the victims thereof.

1886, ch. 325.

100. They are authorized and empowered to offer a reward for the arrest and conviction of criminals for offences committed within said county, whenever in their judgment the nature and character of the offence will warrant it, and to levy upon the assessed property of the county to pay the same; provided, however, that the reward to be paid in any one case shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

1878, ch. 3.

101. When they make their levy, they shall specify therein what per centum is levied for school purposes, what per centum for bonded indebtedness of said county, what per centum for almshouse purposes, what per centum for court purposes, and what per centum for general purposes, which latter shall include all matters not embraced under any of the preceding headings.

Ibid.

102. All county taxes levied by the county commissioners shall be due and payable on the first day of the month next following that in which they are levied; and all persons and corporations that shall pay their county taxes prior to the first day of July following such levy, shall be entitled to a deduction of five per centum on the amount of said taxes; on all county taxes paid during the month of July, a discount of four per centum shall be made; on all county taxes paid during the month of August, a discount of three per centum shall be made; on all county taxes paid during the month of September, a discount of two per centum shall be made; on all county taxes paid during the month of October, a discount of one per centum shall be made; on all